Description

We're looking for a motivated Physical Therapist (PT or DPT) who values patient-centered care and enjoys blending clinical precision with creative problem solving. The ideal candidate thrives in a supportive, collaborative environment and is excited to work in a setting that bridges rehabilitation and performance training.

This position offers the opportunity to design and implement personalized treatment programs using a wide range of modalities and resources — far beyond the limits of a traditional outpatient clinic.

Responsibilities

- Evaluate, diagnose, and develop treatment plans for patients with orthopedic and sports-related conditions.
- Deliver hands-on manual therapy, joint mobilization, and soft-tissue techniques as appropriate.
- Guide patients through progressive exercise and functional movement programs.
- Utilize advanced recovery tools (dry needling, BFR training, cold plunge, NormaTec compression).
- Track patient outcomes, maintain documentation, and communicate progress with referring providers.
- Educate patients on long-term movement strategies, injury prevention, and performance optimization.
- Contribute to a positive, team-focused clinic culture that prioritizes exceptional care.

Qualifications

- Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) or Master's in Physical Therapy from an accredited program.
- Active Massachusetts Physical Therapy License (or eligibility to obtain).
- Strong manual therapy and exercise prescription skills.
- Experience or interest in sports rehabilitation, orthopedics, and advanced recovery techniques.
- Certification or willingness to train in Dry Needling and Blood Flow Restriction (BFR) is preferred.
- Excellent communication, organization, and patient relationship skills.
